INTRODUCTION

The INTERNATIONAL COOPERATIVE ALLIANCE is an International Non-Governmental Organisation which was formed in London in 1895 as an association of national cooperatives. It comprises 164 member organisations from 70 countries, and eight international organisations. Its technical work is carried out through nine Auxiliary sectoral Committees - Agriculture, Banking, Consumers, Fisheries, Housing, Insurance, INTERCOOP (Commerce), Women, Workers' Productive - and five Working Parties - AGITCOOP, Librarians and Documentation Officers, Press, Tourism and the ICA Working Party on Cooperative Research, Planning and Development.

The Quadrennial Congress of the ICA is the highest governing body. It appoints the Central Committee, which meets annually. The Central Committee elects the President and the two Vice Presidents, together with thirteen members of the Executive Committee at the Quadrennial Congress, to hold office until the next Congress. The Executive Committee normally meets twice a year, and elects two Sub-Committees - the Executive Sub-Committee, dealing with finance, administration and policy matters, and the Cooperative Development Committee to deal with technical assistance problems.

The Headquarters of the ICA is in London, with Regional Offices for South East Asia in New Delhi, for East and Central Africa in Moshi, Tanzania, and for West Africa in Abidjan, Ivory Coast.
