Directory of Co-operative Press

March 1988

INTRODUCTION

The Directory of Co-operative Press was last published in 1975. Over the years the Secretariat has received many requests for an updated version of this document, and in Washington in 1985, the Working Party on Co-operative Press, now Working Party on Co-operative Communications, decided that it should be reissued.

In the light of these events, the ICA was pleased to accept the offer of the Committee for the Promotion of Aid to Co-operatives (COPAC) to assist in the updating of the Directory of Co-operative Press. As one of the seven members of COPAC, ICA felt that such a joint effort would greatly enhance the flow of information between co-operative organizations worldwide.

We wish to thank COPAC, and particularly Ms. MariaElena Chavez-Pirson who edited this Directory for their help. Special thanks also to Aline Pawlowska, ICA Documentalist, for supplying information.

We are pleased to make this new Directory available to all who are responsible for spreading the co-operative message through the written word, and urge recipients to add the names and addresses of their colleagues in the co-operative press to their mailing lists for the receipt of press releases, journals and other pertinent materials so that the co-operative message can be spread internationally.

Above all we ask all recipients to send their news to ICA so that ICA's official journals will be truly representative of the co-operative movement worldwide.
